WORKING WITH A REAL ESTATE PROFESSIONAL

Pursuant to the Tennessee Real Estate Broker License Act, every Real Estate Licensee owes the following duties to every Buyer and Seller, Tenant and Landlord (collectively “Buyers” and “Sellers”):

1. To diligently exercise reasonable skill and care in providing services to all parties to the transaction;
2. To disclose to each party to the transaction any Adverse Facts of which Licensee has actual notice or knowledge;
3. To maintain for each party in a transaction the confidentiality of any information obtained by a Licensee prior to disclosure to all parties of a written agency agreement entered into by the Licensee to represent either or both parties in the transaction. This duty of confidentiality extends to any information which the party would reasonably expect to be held in confidence, except for any information required by law to be disclosed. This duty survives both the subsequent establishment of an agency relationship and the closing of the transaction;
4. To provide services to each party to the transaction with honesty and good faith;
5. To disclose to each party to the transaction timely and accurate information regarding market conditions that might affect such transaction only when such information is available through public records and when such information is requested by a party;
6. To give timely account for earnest money deposits and all other property received from any party to a transaction; and
7. A) To refrain from engaging in self-dealing or acting on behalf of Licensee’s immediate family, or on behalf of any other individual, organization or business entity in which Licensee has a personal interest without prior disclosure of such personal interest and the timely written consent of all parties to the transaction; and
B) To refrain from recommending to any party to the transaction the use of services of another individual, organization or business entity in which the Licensee has an interest or from whom the Licensee may receive a referral fee or other compensation for the referral, other than referrals to other Licensees to provide real estate services, without timely disclosure to the party who receives the referral, the Licensee’s interest in such a referral or the fact that a referral fee may be received.

In addition to the above, the Licensee has the following duties to Client if the Licensee has become an Agent or Designated Agent in a transaction:

8. Obey all lawful instructions of the client when such instructions are within the scope of the agency agreement between the Licensee and Licensee’s client;
9. Be loyal to the interests of the client. Licensee must place the interests of the client before all others in negotiation of a transaction and in other activities, except where such loyalty/duty would violate Licensee’s duties to a customer in the transaction; and
10. Unless the following duties are specifically and individually waived in writing by a client, Licensee shall assist the client by:
 - A) Scheduling all property showings on behalf of the client;
 - B) Receiving all offers and counter offers and forwarding them promptly to the client;
 - C) Answering any questions that the client may have in negotiation of a successful purchase agreement within the scope of the Licensee’s expertise; and
 - D) Advising the client as to whatever forms, procedures and steps are needed after execution of the purchase agreement for a successful closing of the transaction.

Upon waiver of any of the above duties contained in 10. above, a consumer must be advised in writing by such consumer’s agent that the consumer may not expect or seek assistance from any other licensees in the transaction for the performance of said duties.

41 Responsibilities of Sellers and Buyers regarding presence of Recording Devices:
 42 Seller is responsible for compliance with state or federal law regarding usage of video or audio recording devices
 43 while marketing or showing the property. Seller should seek legal advice regarding their rights or limitations related 44 to their actions.
 45 Buyer is advised of the possibility that some properties may utilize security devices that record physical movements
 46 or audio conversations. Therefore, Buyers should limit making comments concerning the value, features, or condition
 47 while viewing any property.

AN EXPLANATION OF TERMS

48 Facilitator/Transaction Broker (not an agent for either party). The Licensee is not working as an agent for either party in
 49 this consumer's prospective transaction. A Facilitator may advise either or both of the parties to a transaction but cannot be
 50 considered a representative or advocate of either party. "Transaction Broker" may be used synonymously with, or in lieu of,
 51 "Facilitator" as used in any disclosures, forms or agreements. [By law, any licensee or company who has not entered into a
 52 written agency agreement with either party in the transaction is considered a Facilitator or Transaction Broker until such time
 53 as an agency agreement is established.]

54 Agent for the Seller. The Licensee's company is working as an agent for the property seller and owes primary loyalty to the 55 seller. Even if the Licensee is working with a prospective buyer to locate property for sale, rent, or lease, the Licensee and 56 licensee's company are legally bound to work in the best interests of any property owners whose property is shown to this 57 prospective buyer. An agency relationship of this type cannot, by law, be established without a written agency agreement.

58 Agent for the Buyer. The Licensee's company is working as an agent for the prospective buyer, owes primary loyalty to the 59 buyer, and shall work as an advocate for the best interests of the buyer. An agency relationship of this type cannot, by law, be 60 established without a written buyer agency agreement.

61 Disclosed Dual Agent (for both parties). Refers to a situation in which the Licensee has agreements to provide services as
 62 an agent to more than one party in a specific transaction and in which the interests of such parties are adverse. This agency
 63 status may only be employed upon full disclosure to each party and with each party's informed consent.

64 Designated Agent for the Seller. The individual Licensee that has been assigned by the Managing Broker and is working as
 65 an agent for the Seller or property owner in this consumer's prospective transaction, to the exclusion of all other licensees in 66 licensee's company. Even if someone else in the Licensee's company represents a possible buyer for this Seller's property, the 67 Designated Agent for the Seller shall continue to work as an advocate for the best interests of the Seller or property owner. An 68 agency relationship of this type cannot, by law, be established without a written agency agreement.

69 Designated Agent for the Buyer. The individual Licensee that has been assigned by the Managing Broker and is working as 70 an agent for the Buyer in this consumer's prospective transaction, to the exclusion of all other licensees in the company. Even
 71 if someone else in the Licensee's company represents a seller in whose property the Buyer is interested, the Designated Agent
 72 for the Buyer shall continue to work as an advocate for the best interests of the Buyer. An agency relationship of this type
 73 cannot, by law, be established without a written agency agreement.

74 Adverse Facts. "Adverse Facts" means conditions or occurrences generally recognized by competent licensees that have a
 75 negative impact on the value of the real estate, significantly reduce the structural integrity of improvements to real property or 76 present a significant health risk to occupants of the property.

77 Confidentiality. By law, every licensee is obligated to protect some information as confidential. This includes any information
 78 revealed by a consumer which may be helpful to the other party IF it was revealed by the consumer BEFORE the Licensee
 79 disclosed an agency relationship with that other party. AFTER the Licensee discloses that licensee has an agency relationship
 80 with another party, any such information which the consumer THEN reveals must be passed on by the Licensee to that other 81 party.

TENNESSEE RESIDENTIAL PROPERTY CONDITION EXEMPTION

Property Address: 1043 Patterson Street Madisonville, TN 37354

Seller: Steven R. Flickinger

The Tennessee Residential Property Disclosure Act requires sellers of residential real property with one to four dwelling units to furnish to a buyer one of the following: (1) a residential property disclosure statement (the "Disclosure"), or (2) a residential property disclaimer statement (permitted only where the buyer waives the required Disclosure). Some property transfers may be exempt from this requirement (See Tenn. Code Ann. § 66-5-209). The following is a summary of the buyers' and sellers' rights and obligations under the Act. A complete copy of the Act may be found at Tenn. Code Ann. § 66-5-201, et seq.

1. Sellers must disclose all known material defects, and must answer the questions on the Disclosure form in good faith to the best of the seller's knowledge as of the Disclosure date.
2. Sellers must give the buyers the Disclosure form before the acceptance of a purchase contract.
3. Sellers must inform the buyers, at or before closing, of any inaccuracies or material changes in the condition that have occurred since the time of the initial Disclosure, or certify that there are no changes.
4. Sellers may give the buyers a report or opinion prepared by a professional inspector or other expert(s), or certain information provided by a public agency, in lieu of responding to some or all of the questions on the form (See Tenn. Code Ann. § 66-5-204).
5. Sellers are not required to have a home inspection or other investigation in order to complete the Disclosure form.
6. Sellers are not required to repair any items listed on the Disclosure form or on any past or future inspection report unless agreed to in the purchase contract.
7. Sellers involved in the first sale of a dwelling must disclose the amount of any impact fees or adequate facility taxes paid.
8. Sellers are not required to disclose if any occupant was HIV-positive, or had any other disease not likely to be transmitted by occupying a home, or whether the home had been the site of a homicide, suicide or felony, or act or occurrence which had no effect on the physical structure of the property.
9. Sellers may provide an "as is", "no representations or warranties" disclaimer statement in lieu of the Disclosure form only if the buyer waives the right to the required disclosure, otherwise the sellers must provide the completed Disclosure form (See Tenn. Code Ann. § 66-5-202).
10. Sellers may be exempt from having to complete the Disclosure form in certain limited circumstances (e.g. public auctions, court orders, some foreclosures and bankruptcies, new construction with written warranty, or owner has not resided on the property at any time within the prior 3 years). (See Tenn. Code Ann. § 66-5-209).
11. Buyers are advised to include home, wood infestation, well, water sources, septic system, lead-based paint, radon, mold, and other appropriate inspection contingencies in the contract, as the Disclosure form is not a warranty of any kind by the seller, and is not a substitute for any warranties or inspections the buyer may desire to purchase.
12. Any repair of disclosed defects must be negotiated and addressed in the Purchase and Sale Agreement; otherwise, seller is not required to repair any such items.
13. Buyers may, but do not have to, waive their right to receive the Disclosure form from the sellers if the sellers provide a disclaimer statement with no representations or warranties. (See Tenn. Code Ann. § 66-5-202).
14. Remedies for misrepresentations or nondisclosure in a Property Condition Disclosure statement may be available to buyer and are set out fully in Tenn. Code Ann. § 66-5-208. Buyer should consult with an attorney regarding any such matters.
15. Representations in the Disclosure form are those of the sellers only, and not of any real estate licensee, although licensees are required to disclose to all parties adverse facts of which the licensee has actual knowledge or notice.
16. Pursuant to Tenn. Code Ann. § 47-18-104(b), sellers of newly constructed residences on a septic system are prohibited from knowingly advertising or marketing a home as having more bedrooms than are permitted by the subsurface sewage disposal system permit.
17. Sellers must disclose the presence of any known exterior injection well, the presence of any known sinkhole(s), the results of any known percolation test or soil absorption rate performed on the property that is determined or accepted by the

The Buyers and Sellers involved in the current or prospective real estate transaction for the property listed above acknowledge that they were informed of their rights and obligations regarding Residential Property Disclosures, and that this information was provided by the real estate licensee(s) prior to the completion or reviewing of a Tennessee Residential Property Condition Disclosure, a Tennessee Residential Property Condition Disclaimer Statement, or a Tennessee Residential Property Condition Exemption.
